UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
LIBRARY

Class 366.3 Book M55d Volume

My 08-15M

A DIGEST

of the

Rebekah Laws of Illinois

Codified by

FRED B. MERRILLS, P. G. M.

Published by the

Rebekah State Assembly of Illinois

366.3
M55a

LIBRARY
UNIV. OF ILL.
URBANA

PRESS OF
MONARCH
PRINTING
COMPANY
QUINCY
ILLINOIS

PREFACE.

When the editor of this work was engaged in preparing the Code of 1906, he asked the then President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Lola Rickard, to assist him in some detail relating to the Rebekah portion thereof. This conference led to the suggestion by Sister Rickard that there be a Code prepared and published by the Assembly which would be especially arranged for the use of Rebekah Lodges. This idea was presented to the Assembly at the Session of 1905 by Sister Rickard in her report, and the Committee on Legislation reported in its favor, which report was adopted. Thereupon a motion was made and carried that the President appoint a Special Committee, with herself as Chairman, to prepare and have printed a Code "to be composed of the laws for Rebekah Lodges only."

Under the authority of this motion, a Special Committee was appointed consisting of Sisters Lola L. Rickard, P. P.; Martha J. VanDuzer, P. P.; Nellie L. Harris, P. P.; V. Catherine Thomas, P. P., and May D. Stone, P. P., (see Assembly Journal 1905, p. 2410, 2436, 2493.) Subsequently Sister Ida M. Kewley was added to the Committee to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Sister May D. Stone, (Assembly Journal 1906, p. 2727.)

Section 1 of Article VIII of the Rebekah Lodge Constitution provides that "The Laws of the Subordinate Lodge and the decisions thereon by the Grand and Sovereign Grand Lodge, shall, so far as applicable, control in the government of this Rebekah Lodge in all cases not specially provided (for) by the laws of the Rebekah Branch of the Order."

While this constitutional provision is quite plain, it has been found difficult of application by the inexperienced. Hence it was deemed wise to make the experiment of codifying the laws applicable to the Rebekah Lodges for the use of Rebekah Lodges, in the same manner in which they had been codified for the use of the Subordinate Lodges. To have included this special codification in the "Code of 1906," would have necessitated a very large amount of repetition, and would have materially increased the size of that work, and delayed its publication; hence the other alternative of publishing a separate book.

In arrangement and typography this book is of the same general style and character as the Code of 1906. While it takes years of practical use to fully determine the value of a book, the favorable comments on the Code of 1906 would seem to indicate the wisdom of following the same plan in the present work.

No book can contain all the laws applicable to any branch of Odd Fellowship, and it is not claimed that the present work contains all the law applicable to Rebekah Lodges. But it contains enough of the law to enable Lodges to conduct their business along lines of well-established precedent. The Code of 1906 has been largely drawn from, and the late

Journals have been carefully digested, and the decisions and legislation found therein have been included in the present work.

The general law of the Order is to be sought for in different places. First, in the secret work of the Order, part of which is written and part unwritten. By the written work is meant the Rituals. Second, in the Journals of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Third, in the Constitution, By-Laws and Rules of Order of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which have been compiled mostly from the Journals. Fourth, in the first Digest of its laws, known as the Griffin Digest, or the Digest of 1847. This Digest differs from all other Digests, because it was declared to be itself law by action recorded in the Journal of 1847, page 1094. Fifth, all the later Digests of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, notably those of Past Grand Sires, White and Busbee. These Digests, however, are inferior in authority to the Digest of 1847, as they are declared to be mere compilations. An enactment of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, since the Digest of 1847, is law, even though it be not found in the later Digests. Sixth, in long, and well-established usage and custom, which is, to some extent, recognized as a source of law.

The Journals of the Sovereign Grand Lodge contain the Constitution, By-Laws and Rules of Order of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and amendments thereto; forms and ceremonies; general forms for use in the transaction of the business of the Order; decisions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge on questions of law and appealed cases, and laws of general application. They do not contain any part of the secret work. Said Journals are numbered and paged as follows:

Vol.	Sessions				Pages
I,	from	1821	to	1846, inclusive	1	to	972,	inclusive
II,	"	1847	"	1852, inclusive	1007	"	1966,	inclusive
III,	"	1853	"	1857, inclusive	1981	"	2832,	inclusive
IV,	"	1858	"	1862, inclusive	2849	"	3506,	inclusive
V,	"	1863	"	1867, inclusive	3507	"	4228,	inclusive
VI,	"	1868	"	1870, inclusive	4231	"	4938,	inclusive
VII,	"	1871	"	1873, inclusive	4965	"	5967,	inclusive
VIII,	of	1874	and	1875, inclusive	5971	"	6733,	inclusive
IX,	from	1876	to	1878, inclusive	6737	"	7900,	inclusive
X,	"	1879	"	1881, inclusive	7903	"	8826,	inclusive
XI,	"	1882	"	1884, inclusive	8829	"	9846,	inclusive
XII,	of	1885	and	1886, inclusive	9849	"	10696,	inclusive
XIII,	"	1887	"	1888, inclusive	10699	"	11468,	inclusive
XIV,	"	1889	"	1890, inclusive	11471	"	12338,	inclusive
XV,	"	1891	"	1892, inclusive	12341	"	13235,	inclusive
XVI,	"	1893	"	1894, inclusive	13239	"	14246,	inclusive
XVII,	"	1895	"	1896, inclusive	14229	"	15151,	inclusive
XVIII,	"	1897	"	1898, inclusive	15155	"	16231,	inclusive
XIX,	"	1899	"	1900, inclusive	1	"	1026,	inclusive
XX,	"	1901	"	1902, inclusive	1	"	1069,	inclusive
XXI,	"	1903	"	1904, inclusive	1	"	942,	inclusive
XXII,	"	1905	"	1906, inclusive	1	"	870,	inclusive
XXIII,	"	1907			1	"	384,	inclusive

The first eighteen volumes are cited only by pages. All subsequent volumes are cited both by the number of the volume and by the page. In all citations, the Roman numerals allude to the volume and the Arabic numerals to the page.

The local law is to be found in the Journals of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, in its Acts of Incorporation, in its Constitution, By-Laws and Rules of Order, in the uniform Constitutions which it has prescribed for the Subordinates under its jurisdiction, in the decisions of its Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, and in its Digests. The volumes of the Grand Lodge Journals are numbered with reference to the several sessions as follows:

Vol.		Sessions
"	I,	Sessions	from	1838	to	1852,	inclusive
"	II,	"	"	1853	"	1857,	inclusive
"	III,	"	"	1858	"	1865,	inclusive
"	IV,	"	"	1866	"	1870,	inclusive
"	V,	"	"	1871	"	1875,	inclusive
"	VI,	"	"	1876	"	1880,	inclusive
"	VII,	"	"	1881	"	1885,	inclusive
"	VIII,	"	"	1886	"	1890,	inclusive
"	IX,	"	"	1891	"	1894,	inclusive
"	X,	"	of	1895	and	1896,	inclusive
"	XI,	"	"	1897	"	1898,	inclusive
"	XII,	"	"	1899	"	1900,	inclusive
"	XIII,	"	"	1901	"	1902,	inclusive
"	XIV,	"	"	1903	"	1904,	inclusive
"	XV,	"	"	1905	"	1906,	inclusive
"	XVI,	"	"	1907

The paging of the Grand Lodge Journals is not consecutive from one volume to another, nor from one year to another. With the exception of Volume II, the paging of the first nine volumes begins with one and continues consecutively to the end of the volume. In Volume II, and in all other volumes subsequent to Volume IX, a new series of paging is begun for each Annual Session, hence, in citing these Journals, it is necessary to give either the number of the volume or the year, together with the page.

The Grand Lodge has adopted three Digests. The first is entitled, "Code of the Laws of the I. O. O. F. for Illinois," compiled by Past Grand Representative, Samuel Willard. This Code was adopted in 1881 (see J. VII, p. 115) as the law of the jurisdiction. The second Code is entitled, "Illinois Code of 1896," compiled by Charles S. Thornton (J. 1896, p. 340.) The third is entitled, "The Code of 1906, I. O. O. F."

The following abbreviations appear in the body of this work:

S. J. "Journal of Proceedings, Sovereign Grand Lodge."
J. "Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Illinois."
B. "Busbee's Digest of 1903."
W. "Code of 1881 by Samuel Willard, P. G. R."
T. "Illinois Code of 1896 by Charles S. Thornton."

The author desires to acknowledge his indebtedness to the Code Committee, and to the Officers of the Rebekah Assembly who have assisted him so materially in his labors.

The printing and binding has been done under the direction and supervision of the Printing Committee, composed of Sisters V. Catherine Thomas, P. P., Effie A. Glazier, P. P., and Eliza Ridgeley.

As the general scheme of the work was to include only a part of the law of the Order, it may not come up to the expectations of some. Yet the author speaks for its favorable consideration, and trusts that it may in a large measure fulfill the purpose for which it has been designed.

FRED B. MERRILLS.

Belleville, Illinois, August 15, 1908.

CONSTITUTION

(FOR REBEKAH LODGES)

ARTICLE I.—TITLE AND MEETINGS.

1. INDISPENSABLE NUMBER AND TITLE.—Section 1.—This Lodge shall be constituted by not less than five members, irrespective of sex, including one qualified to preside at its meetings, and shall be hailed and entitled..... Rebekah Lodge, No....., I. O. O. F., of the State of Illinois. (J. 1895, p. 199.)

2. Under the Rebekah Code, Rebekah Lodges have powers and privileges subject to the general regulations of the Order and the regulations of the Grand Lodge to which they are subordinate, to confer the Rebekah Degree on properly qualified candidates; to elect their own officers; to fix and establish initiation fees and dues; to fix the time when such fees and dues are to be paid; to suspend from membership those who are in arrears for one year's dues; to pay and disburse the funds as the majority of the members present may determine for any of the declared purposes of the Degree, and to establish such laws and Rules of Order as are not inconsistent with the Code, or with the General Law, as they may deem proper, subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge to which they are subordinate. See Rebekah Code, Sections 14 to 19, both inclusive. —(Editor.)

3. Rebekah Lodges shall not be chartered by the name of any living person. (Rebekah Code, Sec. 5.) Charters are issued to the Rebekah Assembly and the Rebekah Lodges by the Grand Lodge. Such charters to be in the form prescribed, and on the blanks furnished by the S. G. L. (Rebekah Code, Sec. 21.)

4. The Grand Lodge issues charters, and may require more than five applicants for a charter for a Rebekah Lodge. (S. J. XIX, p. 509, 827, 873; S. J. XIX, p. 848, Sec. 1, Art. VIII, G. L. Const. J. 1906, p. 186, 341.)

5. The President and Secretary of a Rebekah Assembly are not required to sign the charters for new Rebekah Lodges, nor has the Grand Lodge of the jurisdiction the right to so require. (S. J. XX, p. 37, 361, 371, 372.)

6. Assemblies cannot institute Rebekah Lodges. Grand Lodges cannot confer upon Rebekah Assemblies power to institute and charter Rebekah Lodges. They are clothed by Section 2 (Code) with special power, the time and place for exercising which is left to their judgment. Such power cannot be delegated. (S. J. 14240, 14487, 14570.)

7. A Grand Lodge cannot give to its Rebekah Assembly power to charter Rebekah Lodges. (S. J. 14674, 14948, 15019.)

8. A Grand Lodge cannot give its Rebekah Assembly power to revoke the charter of a Rebekah Lodge, or disturb a Lodge in possession of chartered rights. (S. J. 14678, 14948, 15019.)

9. A Grand Lodge cannot transfer from the Grand Master to the President of a Rebekah Assembly the power to reclaim the charter, books and effects and of a Rebekah Lodge. (S. J. 14679, 14948, 15019.)

10. In the absence of any local law governing the restoration of Lodges, the Grand Master has no authority during the recess of the Grand Lodge to restore the name, charter, and effects of a suspended Lodge to five or more petitioners of such Lodge. Nor may a new charter be granted such suspended Lodge upon the petition of five or more members of said Lodge and the effects of said suspended Lodge be restored to it. If the Lodge has been closed by the preceeding Grand Master and his action approved by the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master in office is not authorized to set aside the action of the Grand Lodge. He has authority to grant a dispensation for a new Lodge, and may allow the use of the same name and number. In this new Lodge such members may constitute charter members as may be approved by the Grand Master. (S. J. XXIII, p. 32, 219, 239, 253.)

11. There is no law under which the Grand Lodge may grant the power to the President of the Rebekah Assembly to restore an arrested charter. (S. J. XXIII, p. 44, 219, 239, 253.)

12. The Grand Lodge is permitted to enact such legislation as will allow the President of the Rebekah Assembly to receive petitions for dispensations and charters for the institution of subordinate Rebekah Lodges, and grant same and institute new Rebekah Lodges subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Grand Lodge. (S. J. XXII, p. 716, 767, 781.)

13 The charter of a Rebekah Lodge cannot be surrendered, nor can the Lodge be compelled to consolidate with another while the minimum number of its members required by law to petition for a charter are willing and desirous of retaining the charter. (S. J. XIX, p. 509, 827, 873.)

14. There is no law to prevent the members of a Subordinate Lodge from organizing two or more Rebekah Lodges from among its membership. But in case two Rebekah Lodges are organized from the same Subordinate Lodge, both should be accorded the same privileges by the Subordinate Lodge. (S. J. XIX, p. 31, 365, 394.)

15. In a jurisdiction where a Rebekah Assembly is instituted, all Rebekah Lodges therein are controlled by the same, to the extent that power is delegated to it by the Grand Lodge. (S. J. XXI, p. 35, 284, 314.) All Rebekah Lodges are instituted by authority of the Grand Lodge. (Rebekah Code, Section 2.) The instituting officer may be the Grand Master, or any Past Grand or Past Noble Grand who is in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge. (Rebekah Code, Section 3.)

16. A Rebekah Lodge cannot adopt the christian or surname of a living individual, when it is so adopted as an honor to such living individual. (S. J. XXI, p. 31, 284, 314.)

17. All seals used by Rebekah Lodges should bear the legal designation "Rebekah Lodge," and not that of "Degree of Rebekah," "D. of R.," etc. (S. J. 15754, 16071, 16116.)

18. When a Lodge wishes to change its name on request in writing by ten members of the Lodge, the Noble Grand shall direct the Secretary to send written notices under the seal of the Lodge to all members of the Lodge that the question of changing the name of the Lodge will be considered at a stated meeting. Notices to be mailed at least ten days before the meeting, at which the question is to be considered. If two-thirds of the members present vote for the change of the name, the Noble Grand shall direct the Secretary to report such vote and the name selected under the seal of the Lodge to the Grand Master, who, in his discretion, may issue a dispensation to such Lodge permitting it to use the new name, the seal of the Lodge being changed to correspond with the new name, subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge at its next regular session. Upon approval by the Grand Lodge, the Lodge shall forward its charter to the Grand Secretary to have such name properly endorsed upon its charter. (J. 1907, p. 351, 352, 363.)

19. The Grand Lodges subordinate to the S. G. L. are hereby authorized and empowered to institute Rebekah Lodges at such places as they may deem proper within their territorial limits, and during the recess of such Grand Lodges the Grand Masters are hereby authorized to grant dispensations for the institution of such Rebekah Lodges, subject, however, to the approval of the Grand Lodge at its next session. A Grand Master shall be the installing officer, who may, however, appoint for that purpose any Past Grand or Past Noble Grand who is in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge. (Rebekah Code, Section 213; S. J. XXIII, p. 250, 299, 309.)

20. Under the act of the legislature incorporating the Grand Lodge and the Subordinates belonging thereto, approved February 8, 1849, the Supreme Court of Illinois held that suit in behalf of the Lodge should be brought in the name of its Trustees. (Marsh vs. Astoria Lodge No. 112, 27th Illinois, 421.)

21. By Section 1 of the Act amending the Articles of Incorporation, approved February 16, 1865, it is provided that suits to recover the property of the Lodge may be brought in the name of the Lodge.

22. A suit cannot be brought against the Lodge, but must be brought against its Trustees. (Sec. 5, Act of Incorporation.)

POWERS OF A LODGE:

23. Lodges derive their powers from the authority which created them, and are restricted to the exercise of those conferred by their charters and the laws of the several Grand Lodges under which they exist. They have no legislative power whatever except to make by-laws and rules of order for their own internal government, which must conform to the laws of the Grand Lodge of its jurisdiction and to those of the S. G. L. (U. S. Digest 1847, p. 47; S. J. 1235, 3415, 3463, 1724, 1797, 1786, 1807.)

24. A Lodge may lease its property for any legitimate purpose. When it owns a three-story building, and the third story only is used for Lodge purposes, the other two stories may be rented and used for any legitimate business without a violation of the law, excluding all spirituous, vinous and malt liquors from the Lodge room and ante-rooms or halls connected with or adjoining thereto. (S. J. 8839, 9025, 9101; See § 39 and § 53 infra.)

25. When a Lodge disregards the law of the Grand Lodge or a provision of its Constitution, yet acts in accordance with the laws of the S. G. L., it is not subject to punishment by the State Grand Body. But it would violate a law of its Grand Body at its peril, and, of course, the State Grand Body would be the proper tribunal to judge of such violation. But if such Lodge acted in accordance with the laws of the S. G. L., the latter would, on appeal, be protected. (S. J. 3109, 3124.)

26. It is the duty of a Lodge and its officers to obey and enforce the laws of the S. G. L., anything in the Constitution of the Grand Lodge or Subordinate Lodge to the contrary notwithstanding. (S. J. 10254, 10487, 10511.)

27. The right of Lodges to re-elect their officers is under the control of the Grand Lodge. (S. J. 4182, 4200.)

28. Lodge libraries are a necessity to the Order and should be by all means encouraged. Funds of Lodges may be appropriated for that purpose. The manner and measure of such appropriations are proper subjects for local legislation. Members cannot be taxed to support them. (S. J. 6985, 7054, 7381, 7474.)

29. It has been a well established practice with the S. G. L. to recognize the power of a Lodge over its financial affairs as a delicate, sacred and highly cherished prerogative, but the S. G. L. will not permit a Lodge, even with the approval of the Grand Lodge of the jurisdiction, to loan funds without ample security and reasonable interest. (S. J. 2496, 2520, 10865, 10911, 10928, 11897, 12192, 12276, 14433, 14461.)

30. If a Lodge, on being instructed by the Grand Master to cease violating the law, complies, there is no law which forbids it from doing so under protest. (S. J. 11100, 11368, 11396.)

31. There is no law to prevent a Lodge from protesting against the instructions of a Grand Master, where the Lodge is clearly of the opinion that the instructions are wrong. While a Lodge would have no right to disregard the instructions of a Grand Master, and while it would be its duty to obey them, yet the right to respectfully protest should not and cannot be taken away. (S. J. 11719, 11769.)

32. The matter of using the funds of a Lodge for the purpose of paying for the services of their officers is one which properly belongs to the legislation of the respective State District and Territorial Grand Bodies. (S. J. 3117, 3124.)

33. One Lodge may sue another in the civil courts, unless inhibited by its Grand Lodge Constitution, as there is no general law forbidding it. (S. J. 15164, 15534, 15584.)

34. Question—Has a Lodge authority to issue and sell bonds to its members to raise money to purchase a building site and erect thereon a building containing a hall for Lodge purposes?

Answer—The rights given by our special charter from the State, while not providing for such bond issue, is apparently broad enough to permit it. The usage of the Order has been to make such purchases and erect such buildings, securing any indebtedness by notes or mortgages. The issue of bonds would be but another form of like indebtedness, and therefore permissible. (J. 1901, p. 13, 319.)

36. When fines are properly and legally assessed against a member, the Lodge has no right to remit them. And when an officer is, under the By-Laws, fined for absence, the Lodge may not remit the fine. (J. III, p. 485, 515; J. V., p. 25.)

ILLEGAL ACTS OF A LODGE:

37. Lodges may not assemble in convention for the purpose of legislating or effecting legislation concerning the Order or the Grand Lodge without the consent of the Grand Lodge. (S. J. 1786, 1807.)

38. A Lodge may not adopt a resolution requiring that the "Union Label" be placed on all local printing of the Lodge, and the placing of the "Union Label" upon all the letter heads of the Lodge, which letter heads also contain the name and number of the Lodge, its location and nights of meeting and emblems of the Order is a violation of Section 471 of Busbee's Digest of 1903. (S. J. XXII, p. 435, 675, 709.)

39. A Lodge shall not lease any part of its Lodge property or property in its control directly or indirectly, to any person or persons to be used as a saloon, or place to dispense intoxicants and beverages to be drunk then and there on the premises. (S. J. XXII, p. 759, 791, 812.)

40. A Lodge or its members may not hoist a political banner or flag upon the Lodge room or make or partake in any political demonstrations whatever. (J. III, p. 157, 158, 193.)

41. And the Lodge has no right to declare any man a proper or improper person for any public office. (J. VI, p. 78, 106.)

This decision was made by Grand Master Oberly, and was referred to the Judiciary Committee, but it does not appear that the Judiciary Committee reported on it, or that it was approved by the Grand Lodge.—(Editor.)

42. A Lodge may not work in any other language than the one assigned to it when it was instituted, if there are other Lodges in the same town working in different languages. But a Lodge working regularly in one language may use rituals in another language, when this latter is not the language of some other Lodge of the same town. (J. V, p. 572; J. VI, p. 1026.)

43. A Lodge should not ask advice or counsel from any other source than its own Grand Lodge. (U. S. Digest of 1847, p. 47.)

44. No Lodge or any of the members thereof shall in the name of the Order resort to any scheme of raffles, lotteries, gift enterprises, or scheme of hazard or chance of any kind as a means of raising funds for any purpose of relief or assistance to other Lodges or to individual members. (S. J. 3953, 3988.)

45. No circular may be issued or distributed by any Lodge of this jurisdiction without the written consent of the Grand Master. (J. VI, p. 627.)

46. It is not within the jurisdiction of one Lodge to try the members of another, much less to declare a sentence of exclusion without a trial. The only proper course for a Lodge or member to pursue, in cases where members of other Lodges are regarded unworthy, is to prefer charges against them, in pursuance of the well established laws of the Order. (S. J. 2759, 2783.)

47. A Lodge may not entertain any application for pecuniary aid or assistance unless the same be authorized by the Grand Lodge or its principal officer, in accordance with the form prescribed for such purpose by the S. G. L. (S. J. 4467, 4598, 4614.)

48. The existing law provides: "No Lodge may entertain any application for pecuniary aid or assistance, under whatever scheme it may be presented, unless the same be authorized." This language is broad enough to cover the sale of tickets as a scheme to raise funds. No officer or member shall sell any tickets sent to him from any other Lodge for such purpose. (J. VII, p. 275, 297.)

49. It is not legal to allow a call for aid from the Lodges to assist those who are suffering from a foreign war and who are not members of the Order. (S. J. 14686, 14948, 15019.)

50. The Grand Sire cannot authorize a Lodge under the sole jurisdiction of the S. G. L. to apply to Lodges working under a State jurisdiction for aid and relief, without first having obtained the consent of the Grand Master of such jurisdiction to make such application. (S. J. 9022, 9100.)

51. The Grand Lodge discourages appeals for aid from Brothers and Lodges in case of loss or damage by fire. A Lodge may not ask aid for its individual members, or send its own members or the widows of its deceased members to other places to ask aid of the Order. (J. III, p. 507, 512; J. IV, p. 313; J. VI, p. 341.)

FESTIVITIES:

52. In all cases where a Lodge desires to have a ball, festival or other entertainment in the name of the Order, and makes due application to the Grand Master for a dispensation, such Lodge shall satisfy the Grand Master in such application that it has been fully indemnified against any and all loss or liability by or through such ball, festival or other entertainment. The Grand Master may require such form of indemnity as in his opinion will protect the Lodge from loss. (J. VI, p. 125, 1012.)

53. All spirituous, vinous and malt liquors shall be excluded from the Lodge rooms and ante-rooms or halls connected with or adjoining thereto, when under the control of any Subordinate Lodge. Every provision in conflict with this law, as well as all regulations heretofore passed respecting the use of edibles, are repealed. (S. J. 6198, 6222.)

54. No Association or League composed of delegates selected from a given number of Rebekah Lodges has any right to conduct entertainments, etc., without a dispensation from the Grand Master. No raffle can be conducted in the name of the Order. A dispensation cannot be granted for that purpose. A rummage sale might be conducted provided a dispensation has been granted by the proper Grand Officer. (S. J. XXIII, p. 32, 219, 239, 253.)

55. A Lodge securing a dispensation for a certain social function may not, without permission of the Grand Master, give an entertainment different in character or inconsistent with the terms of the dispensation. (J. 1901, p. 12, 319.)

56. Pleasure clubs, by whatsoever name, composed of or controlled by members of the Order, so as to be identified in public opinion with our Order, or with any particular Lodge or Lodges of our Order, are required to secure dispensations for picnics, excursions, balls and entertainments of whatsoever kind, from the Grand Master, with the same restrictions as those provided for the Lodge. (J. 1901, p. 12, 319.)

57. No festival may be held in connection with the regular meeting of a Lodge. (J. III, p. 268.)

58. No Lodge shall hold any anniversary or other celebration, ball or party, where the regalia of the Order may be worn or the name of the Order assumed, without the consent of the Grand Master first being obtained in writing, such permission to be predicated only upon the direct promise through the officers of the Lodge seeking the permission, that no intoxicating liquors of any kind shall be offered by them to the members or guests present on the occasion. State Grand Lodges must enforce this law. (S. J. 3709.) If a Lodge violates this law, the Grand Master must suspend it at once, and prefer charges and specifications as directed. (J. III, p. 517.)

59. It is not permissible for a Lodge to present in public or in private a burlesque of any of the ceremonies of the Order, or to give in public any dramatic representation claiming to be in any way connected with our ritual. (S. J. 13783, 14036, 14070.)

60. The Grand Lodge recommends to the Subordinates, in places where its annual sessions are held, that they do not give any public festival or entertainment to the Grand Lodge. The Grand Lodge will not accept any invitation for a public parade during its session. (J. 1855, p. 108; J. V, p. 744.)

61. No Lodge shall appear in procession in regalia except to attend the funeral of a brother or to celebrate the anniversary day of the Order, April 26th, without having first obtained permission so to do in the manner prescribed by law. (Grand Lodge By-Laws, Art. II, Sec. 7; S. J. XXII, p. 284, 355, 361.)

62. The Anniversary Proclamation of the Grand Sire gives no authority to wear the regalia or display any of the emblems of the Order where a dance or banquet or other social is held in connection with the anniversary. (S. J. 14683, 14948, 15019.)

63. The law of 1864 (S. J. 3709) does not embrace attendance at church or other public places in regalia merely to listen to a sermon or lecture and return promptly to the Lodge room. (S. J. 14685, 15045, 15086.)

64. Permission to join in public procession in regalia in connection with other organizations, when invited so to do by the civil authorities, may be obtained under such regulations as the Grand Lodge prescribes. (S. J. 3739, 3821, 3843.)

65. A Lodge may not give a sacred concert on Sunday in a theatre or public hall, using the name of the Order, charging an admission fee and using the proceeds for its benefits. (S. J. XXI, p. 543, 752, 820.)

66. If the Grand Lodge confers the power, a Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge may by By-Law provide that moneys received from socials and entertainments be placed in the contingent fund. (S. J. XXI, p. 546, 752, 820.)

67. The 20th day of September is to be recognized as the anniversary of the institution of the Rebekah Degree, and it is to be annually celebrated and commemorated as such by proper and appropriate ceremonies. (S. J. 15640.)

68. The 26th day of April is established as the anniversary of the Order, and the Grand Lodges are required to urge their Subordinates to observe the day in some appropriate manner, and to authorize them to hold on that day public processions in regalia. (S. J. 4210, 4211, 7377, 7473.)

69. Where the Anniversary of the Order (April 26th) falls on a week day, it is not permissible to defer the celebration to the following Sunday, and to hold a meeting privately or publicly for such celebration on such Sunday. The expenses of such celebration held on Sunday may not be legally paid either from the general or special funds of the Lodge. (S. J. XXII, p. 435, 675, 709.)

70. A general dispensation authorizing the Lodges to celebrate the Anniversary of the Order by public exercises not contrary to the recognized laws and customs of the Order, does not authorize Lodges to have balls, festivals, etc., without first complying with the law and obtaining a special dispensation for the purpose. (S. J. 3709; Grand Lodge By-Laws, Art. II, Sec. 7.)

71. No Subordinate or Grand Lodge, Rebekah Lodge or Assembly, Subordinate or Grand Encampment, Canton or Grand Canton, and no member of any of the above organizations of any rank or station in the same, shall hold or make any arrangement for, or manage, or to any extent, control any anniversary, excursion, picnic, ball or party, or entertainment of any kind where regalia, emblems, or name of the Order will be worn, assumed or used, without first obtaining the consent of the Executive Grand Officer in the jurisdiction, or department of the Order, in which the entertainment is proposed to be held, such permission only to be predicated upon the direct promise, through the officers of the Subordinate or Grand Body seeking the permission, that no intoxicating beverages of any kind shall be offered to the members or guests present on the occasion. (S. J. 13067, 13155.)

72. A "masque ball," held under the auspices of the Lodge, is not necessarily an affair which would scandalize the Order. It would depend upon the character and surroundings of the ball. (S. J. 12353, 12616, 12652.)

THE LODGE SEAL:

73. Every Lodge shall have a suitable seal (a proof-impression of which shall be deposited with the Grand Secretary); and all of its official communications shall be sealed therewith. (G. L. By-Laws, Art. II, Sec. 6.)

74. The seal to be authentic must be printed or impressed upon the paper or document it authenticates, and not affixed thereto. (S. J. 2767, 2810.)

75. The seal shall only be used in transacting the legitimate business of the Lodge. (S. J. 6752, 6976, 7051.)

76. Communications from one Lodge to another or to persons ought to be attested by the seal, and a Lodge would be justified in refusing attention to any document from another Lodge not so attested. The custom is to address a Lodge as follows: "To the Noble Grand, Officers and Members of..... Lodge, No.....", but there is no law which requires a communication in that form. (S. J. 9857, 10105, 10176.)

77. In the installation ceremony the seal is put into the hands of the Recording Secretary. He is the only one authorized to use it, and he alone can officially attest anything for or on behalf of the Lodge. (S. J. 9856, 10105, 10176; See Ritual, second paragraph, p. 52.)

78. The Financial Secretary, as such, has no authority to use the seal (J. VI, p. 496) even for the purpose of attesting notices of arrears sent to members (J. V, p. 485) or for attesting official receipts (S. J. XX,